

Table of Contents

Fundamentals of Criminal Investigation	1
1.1. Introduction	2
1.2. History of Criminal Investigation	2
1.3. Development of Crime Detection Research	6
1.4. Research in Criminal Investigation: Rand Corporation and Perf Study	8
1.5. Investigation Modes and Types	12
1.6. Investigator Roles	13
1.7. Initial Investigation (Preliminary Investigation)	14
Summary	16
References	17

Crime Scene Operations	18
2.1. Introduction	18
2.2. Overview and Utilization of Field Notes	19
2.3. Fundamentals of an Official Police Report	22
2.4. Photography: Permissibility, Identification and Surveillance	24
2.5. Video Surveillance and Sketching the Crime Scene	27
Summary	30
References	31
Crime Scene: Evidence and Situations	32
3.1. Introduction	33
3.2. Basics of Evidence (Legal Considerations and Types)	34
3.3. Responsibilities of a First Officer and Scene Securing	38
3.4. Dealing with Special Situations (Dead Body, Firearms, Biohazardous Materials, etc.)	40
3.5. Assessment and Search	43
3.6. Evidence Collection and Witness Interviewing	46
3.7. Preparing Reports and Following Up	48
Summary	49
References	49
Processes at the Laboratory and Field	50
4.1. Introduction	50
4.2. Crime Laboratory Roles and Fundamentals	52
4.3. Fingerprints and Identification	55
Explicitly these included:	58
4.4. Analysis of Handwriting	58
4.5. Misidentification Prevention and Facial Composites	62
Websites	67
Interrogations and Interviews	68
5.1. Introduction	69
5.2. The Basics of Interviews	69
5.3. Cognitive Interviews	73
5.4. The Basics of Interrogation	78
5.5. Interrogation Procedure	80
5.6. Coercive Interrogation Strategies	83

5.7. Reasons for Confession and Cooperation	84
5.8. Recorded and Written Statements Structure and Handling	85
Summary	85
References	86
Criminal Investigation: Legal Considerations	87
6.1. Introduction	87
6.2. Search Guidelines: Cause, Exclusion and Lawful Arrest	88
6.3. Exclusionary Rule Exceptions	97
6.4. Searches with or Without Warrant	101
6.5. Arresting Process (Post Arrest Process, Force Requirements)	103
Websites	106
Undercover Operations and Informants Management	107
7.1. Introduction	108
7.2. Defining Informants and their Utilization	108
Undercover operation authorization:	113
7.3. Source Documentation	115
Types of Documentation:	118
7.4. Identify Protection and Legal Consideration for Informants	121
7.5. Undercover Operations Preparation	124
7.6. Working Environment and Cover Stories	125
7.7. Cover Protection and Risk	126
Looking for and inspecting the scene:	127
Summary	128
Websites	128
Surveillance and Criminal Intelligence	129
8.1. Introduction	130
8.2. Covert vs Overt Collection	134
8.3. Fundamentals of Criminal Intelligence	135
8.4. Intelligence Collection Procedure and Information Analysis	137
8.5. Intelligence Files: Purging and Auditing	141
8.6. Operations of Crime Surveillance	142

8.7. Modern Surveillance Development	145
Summary	145
References	146
Investigations of Death	147
9.1. Introduction	148
9.2. Death: Modes and Types	148
9.3. Homicide Characteristics	149
9.4. The Preliminary Process of Investigation	150
9.5. Investigating Gun Wounds	154
9.6. Determining Time of Death	155
9.7. Issues with Investigation	157
9.8. Serial, Spree and Mass Murder	158
9.9. Suicide Investigation (Motive, Material, Note)	159
Summary	160
References	161
Robbery Offences	162
10.1. Introduction	162
10.2. The Elements of Robbery and Types	164
10.3. Role of First Officers and Witnesses	168
10.4. Methods of Robbery	171
Summary	173
References	173
Stealing Offenses	174
11.1. Introduction	175
11.2. Elements of Burglary and Types	175
11.3. The Preliminary Investigation	177
11.4. Stolen Property Tracing	180
11.5. Credit Card Frauds and Shoplifting	182
11.6. Larceny and Identity Theft	183
11.7. Carjacking and Theft of Motor Vehicles	185
Summary	187
References	188
Abduction and Missing Persons	189
12.1. Introduction	189

12.2. Children Missing Case Types	190
12.3. Child Abduction: Legislative History	191
12.4. Abductions through the Internet	192
12.5. Code Adam and Amber Alerts	193
12.6. Roles of Responding Officers	195
Step 1: Obtaining information from parents or the first respondent	196
Step 2: Verifying whether the person is actually missing	196
Step 3: Verifying the child's custody status	196
Step 4: Figuring out the circumstances of the disappearance	197
Step 5: Finding out the child's last location	197
Step 6: Interviewing the individuals who had last contact with the	198
Step 7: Identifying how far the child could have gone	198
Step 8: Roughly categorizing the type of incident.	198
Step 9: Obtaining detailed description of the missing child, locations and potential suspects	199
Step 10: Relaying detailed descriptive information to appropriate authorities	199
Step 11: Ensuring any remaining persons at the scene are identified and interviewed and information is properly recorded	199
Step 12: Continuing to update the emergency dispatcher and other appropriate department personnel	200
Step 13: Obtaining search warrant for relevant houses or buildings.	200
Step 14: Securing and the crime scene	200
Step 15: Obtaining photos, videos, and any other information that may work as evidence	201
Step 16: Preparing reports and notifying required information.	201
12.7. Roles of Investigating Officers	201
Step 1: Debriefing the first responding officer or patrolling officer	201
Step 2: Verifying the accuracy of all information.	202

Step 3: Researching family history	202
Step 4: Separating and analyzing conflicting information.	202
Step 5: Evaluation and management of all available information	202
Step 6: Developing a follow-up plan	203
Step 7: Acquiring additional resource	203
Step 8: Carrying out an investigative follow-up plan	204
12.8. Abductions: Suspect Interviewing	204
Summary	205
References	205

Offenses: Assault and Similar Types 206

13.1. Introduction	206
13.2. Legal Identification and Classification	207
Aggravated Assault	208
Simple Assault	210
13.3. The Initial Investigation	211
Gathering Evidence	212
Documenting Statements	212
Managing Suspects	213
Preserving the Crime Scene	213
13.4. Violence at Home and on Elderly	214
Investigation of Domestic Violence	216
Violence on Elders	217
13.5. Sexual Assault and Stalking	218
Date Rape	218
Forcible Rape	219
Sex Crime Investigation	219
Stalking	221
Summary	222
References	222

Misconducts against Children 224

14.1. Introduction	224
14.2. Nature of Child Fatalities (Roles, Evidence, Interviewing etc.)	227
14.3. Physical Abuse and Battered Child Syndrome	229

14.4. Shaken Baby Syndrome, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome and Munchausen Syndrome	233
14.5. Forensic Interviews and Child Witnesses	235
14.6. Child Molester Investigation: Intent and Premeditation	236
Summary	238
Websites	239
Terrorism, Arson and Bombings	240
15.1. Introduction	240
15.2. Elements of Arson Offences	242
15.3. Motives and Investigations of Arson	243
15.4. Bombs and Bombing Incidents	245
15.5. Bomb Threat Investigation	247
15.6. Defining Terrorists	249
15.5. Bomb Threat Investigation	252
15.6. Defining Terrorists	253
15.5. Bomb Threat Investigation	256
15.6. Defining Terrorists	257
15.5. Bomb Threat Investigation	260
15.6. Defining Terrorists	261
15.7. Domestic and International Terrorism	263
15.8. Tactics for Terrorism Prevention	266
Summary	267
Computer Crime and White-Collar Prosecution	269
16.1. Introduction	270
16.2. What is Computer Crime?	270
16.3. Computer Crime Nature	270
16.4. Computer Crime Investigation and Types	271
16.5. Frauds of Automatic Teller Machines	273
16.6. What is White Collar Crime	277
16.7. Confidence Games	279
16.8. Money Laundering	279
Summary	281
References	281
Gangs, Drugs and Organized Crime	283
17.1. Introduction	283

17.2. Gangs and Organized Crime	284
Identifying attributes	284
Organized Crime	285
Some Examples of Criminal Organizations	285
17.3. Offenses Related to Drugs	286
17.4. Drug Law Structure	287
17.5. Various Abuse Drugs (Cannabis, Narcotics, Stimulant etc.)	288
17.6. Physician Investigations	289
17.7. Drug Substitution and Theft	290
Drug Substitution	290
Drug Theft	291
Summary	292
References	292
Court Preparations	293
18.1. Introduction	293
18.2. Trial Preparations	294
18.3. Appearance and Credibility of Investigator as Witness	298
18.4. Courtroom Demeanor	299
18.5. Expert Witness Roles	299
18.6. Testification in Court	300
Summary	301
Reference	302
Index	303